In the spring and summer, all kinds of insects come out where you can see them. And they do all kinds of interesting things. Go on an insect hunt and see what buggy action you can find. Place a check mark next to each insect behavior you see and draw a picture of it. Use a field guide to help you identify each insect. (See example below.)

---

Keep a Record!

- Date: __________
- Time: __________
- Location: ______________
- Weather: _____________

Helpful Things to Take Along

- [ ] Crayons or colored markers
- [ ] Insect field guide.

---

- [ ] Chewing
  - type of insect: caterpillar

- [ ] Pollinating
  - type of insect: ____________

- [ ] Hiding
  - type of insect: ____________

- [ ] Crawling
  - type of insect: ____________

- [ ] Flying
  - type of insect: ____________

- [ ] Nest-Building
  - type of insect: ____________

- [ ] Swimming
  - type of insect: ____________

- [ ] Self-Defending
  - type of insect: ____________